

Everything Everything

Stacey Ryan

Changed who I was 'cause you knew that I would Took advantage of me 'cause you knew you could
And that's dirty

You said that I was a star, you said that I was your future
The girl of your dreams, why would you wanna lose her
It's crazy

And you let me slip through your fingertips
For the girl on the side
I wish I could wish you the best
But I don't feel like lying

Why did you break us apart
After you played with my heart
And told me I was
Your everything, everything
Seduced by your lies
Devil in disguise
When you told me I was
Your everything, everything

Looked me dead in the eyes and told me you loved me
How did I get manipulated by you
So easily

'Cause if you were really my person
This would be working
Wouldn't feel like
I was such a burden to carry

But you let me slip through your fingertips
For that girl on the side
I wish I could wish you the best
But I'm not good at lying

Why did you break us apart
After you played with my heart
And told me I was
Your everything, everything
Seduced by your lies
Devil in disguise
When you told me I was
Your everything, everything

Everything, everything
Everything, everything

After all this time
Finally free to fly
'Cause I know that I'm not
Your everything, everything
