

Over Tonight

Stacey Ryan

3 A.M. and your body's still with me
Only friends but you're making it tricky
You always leave in the dark blue
But something feels different this time
Way back when got me miss indifferent
Present tense got me feeling different
Agreed to avoid the emotions
But I never signed on the line

We lay awake procrastinating
Our goodbyes with bedroom eyes
Is it too late for me to say
Ain't easy to admit but boy

My bed is colder without you
I don't wanna overanalyze
But were you about to
Tell me something that changes how I
Compartmentalize where you lay in my mind
Wondering how do you look in the daylight
Instead of dreaming about you
Maybe you could stay over tonight

Stay over tonight, stay over tonight
This doesn't have to be over

24 hours in our future
We're at yours, couldn't get here sooner
The secrets we're sharing are deeper
With each one the deeper I feel

We lay awake procrastinating
Our goodbyes with bedroom eyes
You hesitate but finally say
What's hiding in your head, you said

My bed is colder without you
I don't wanna overanalyze
But were you about to
Tell me something that changes how I
Compartmentalize where you lay in my mind
Wondering how do you look in the daylight
Instead of dreaming about you
Maybe you could stay over tonight

Stay over tonight, stay over tonight
This doesn't have to be over tonight
Stay over tonight, stay over tonight
This doesn't have to be over

Is it so wrong to want you this bad
Cancel all our other plans
Leave your watch on my night stand
Just so you can come back again

Colder without you
I don't wanna overanalyze

But were you about to
Tell me something that changes how I
Compartmentalize where you lay in my mind
Wondering how do you look in the daylight
Instead of dreaming about you
Maybe you could stay over tonight

Stay over tonight, stay over tonight
This doesn't have to be over tonight (This doesn't have to be over tonight)
Stay over tonight, stay over tonight (Come on, come on, come on)
This doesn't have to be over
