Beautiful Awakening

Stacie Orrico

A beautiful awakening has happened in my soul A beautiful awakening that only I could know

Try to imagine a sound that you've never heard A color that you've never seen Try to describe A taste youve not tasted And maybe youll know what I mean

A beautiful awakening has happened in my soul A beautiful awakening that only I could know

Can you imagine if you spent your whole life With a heart beating out of time Then one day your wild heart found its rhythm Dont you think youd lose your mind

A beautiful awakening has happened in my soul A beautiful awakening that only I could know

What if you woke up one day and your eyes could see Ugly things as beautiful, ay Would you believe it if you fell in love with a Stranger would you be doubtful?

A beautiful awakening has happened in my soul A beautiful awakening that only I could know

When I looked at you My heart already knew You had come to breathe life into my dormant soul I was terrified I'm not afraid anymore Cause I know that you Embrace my heart and I feel alive

Yeah yeah, ohh

A beautiful awakening has happened in my soul A beautiful awakening that only I could know A beautiful awakening has happened in my soul And I know that you know A beautiful awakening
