I Loved You

Stack Bundles

I loved you
I really did

Uh uh
I loved you more than life even called you wife
Infactuated by your sweetness,
You took my kindness for weakness,
You had me head over heals,
I let you shop til you dropped then I took you to bills.
Frequent trips to vegas and beverly hills,
Brought shoes from melrose,
Let you party in the vill,
Nice pocahacono sweats for our weekends off,
Found out I wasn't the only nigga freakin off,
I lost my mind, I could'ntfind,
But love is blind I was blinded,
Wish I could rewind it,
I played a fool for you,
Payed for school for you,
Got in beef in the street,
Blazed the tool for you,
All for nothing,
f*ckin niggas good for nothing,
I could'ntsee could'ntthink for nothing;
My own family told me you would suck me and f*ck me and try to cram me in a small hole that's hurtin my soul.

Thru the coldest nights I held you tight,
I loved you more than life
No matter who was wrong or right tho we fussed and fight,
I loved you more than life
The reason that I called you wife thought our bond was tight,
I loved you more than life
It took for years to realize that this shit wasn't right

Uh uh
We was down for four years caught uncountable tears til one day I just swall owed my fears and followed my heart,
Told you in a dream I seen a end of a start,
Got you pregnant even tho I seen us driftin apart,
I tried to pull you in,
But sumthin in my mind said it wouldn't work;
Subcontious was hurt,
I was wrong tho pregnancy slowed you down,
It was one thing body could'nthold a pound,
So if you needed me,
All you really needed me to see was how good and how sweet it would be for u s to be a family,
But you tricked me and I fell for it,
Time and time again press rewind again,
You wine and dine my friend,
Then I find you in my crib with my sheets moanin and groanin to my beats,

Got damn how can I forgive this chick,
I'm the reason that you live so rich you,
Owe me!

Thru the coldest nights I held you tight,
I loved you more than life
No matter who was wrong or right tho we fussed and fight,
I love you more than life
The reason that I called you wife thought our bond was tight,
I loved you more than life
I took four years to realize that this shit wasn't right

Uh uh
We had a son,
He was a splittin image of his father,
Because of that you wouldn't even bother,
Try raising him how can I explain to him that his mother wasn't claimin him it didn't sound right, found another loveable mother that made him smile rig ht,
Gorgeous and intelligent til she was the profound type,
Hold me down type,
What I needed in my life type,
Wish I wouldve known from the start that you was the trif type,
Wudnt've spend all them days spent all them nights tryna make shit right,
I wudve did what I had to wudnt've put my lad thru all the bullshit that he went thru,
That's why he resent you cause it's all your fault full custidy no child sup port and now my living is right I ain't gotta fuss and fight and he loves me more than life

Thru the coldest nights I held you tight,
I loved you more than life
No matter who was wrong or right tho we fussed and fight,
I loved you more than life
The reason that I called you wife thought our bond was tight,
I loved you more than life
It took four years to realize that this shit wasn't right
Thru the coldest nights I held you tight,
I loved you more than life
No matter who was wrong or right tho we fussed and fight,
I loved you more than life
The reason that I called you wife thought our bond was tight,
I loved you more than life
It took four years to realize that this shit wasn't right
