

The Only One

Stacy Barthe

Knew what it was from jump
I should've never gave it up so easy
That's why I don't get drunk
I'm liable to fall in love too easy
I'm vulnerable can't you see
I wanted you only now you live inside of me mmmm
Don't want your love this way, this way, this way
I just want you home with me mmmm

I'd give up anything to be your number one
Not your number one in the dark wanna be the only one.
You love...

Wanna be the only one one one you love
Wanna be the only one one one you love
Wanna be the only one one one you love
Wanna be the only one you love

Admit I lost myself in your eyes
And your touch I can't resist
Everything goes out the window with you
All my rules all my don't do's
I'm vulnerable can't you see
I wanted you only now you live inside of me mmmm
Don't want your love this way, this way, this way
I just want you home me mmmm

I'd give up anything to be your number one
Not your number one in the dark wanna be the only one.
You love...

Wanna be the only one one one you love
Wanna be the only one one one you love
Wanna be the only one one one you love
Wanna be the only one you love

I'd give up anything to be your number one
Not your number one in the dark wanna be the only one.
You love...

Wanna be the only one one one you love
Wanna be the only one one one you love
Wanna be the only one one one you love
Wanna be the only one you love
