

Memories

Stacy Lattisaw

Pictures from that funny machine
I take them from the wall
Can't believe your smile doesn't mean
Anything at all

Empty out that dusty old drawer
Throw it away
I don't need to cry anymore
Over yesterday

Memories are all I have of you
Memories are all I have
Memories are all I have of you
Memories are all I have

Thought I had a future with you
Got the past instead
Took a dream and tore it in two
With the words you say

Memories are all I have of you
Memories are all I have
Memories are all I have of you
Memories are all I have

See them everywhere
The little things you brought me
The secrets that we share
Come back to haunt me, back to haunt me

Ooh, memories are all I have of you
Memories are all I have
Memories are all I have of you
Memories are all I have

Ooh, hoo, memories are all I have of you
Memories are all I have of you
