

Fade

Staind

I try to breathe
Memories overtaking me
I try to face them but
The thought is too much to conceive

I only know that I can change
Everything else just stays the same
So now I step out of the darkness
That my life became 'cause

I just needed someone to talk to
You were just too busy with yourself
You were never there for me
To express how I felt, I just stuffed it down

Now I'm older and I feel like
I could let some of this anger fade
But it seems the surface
I am scratching is the bed that I have made

So where were you
When all this I was going through?
You never took the time to ask me
Just what you could do

I only know that I can change
Everything else just stays the same
So now I step out of the darkness
That my life became 'cause

I just needed someone to talk to
You were just too busy with yourself
You were never there for me
To express how I felt, I just stuffed it down

Now I'm older and I feel like
I could let some of this anger fade
But it seems the surface
I am scratching is the bed that I have made

But I never meant to fade away
I never meant to fade

I just needed someone to talk to
You were just too busy with yourself
You were never there for me to Express how I felt I just stuffed it down

Now I'm older and I feel like
I could let some of this anger fade
But it seems the surface
I am scratching is the bed that I have made

I try to breath
