

Hate Me Too

Staind

Keep getting caught in another crisis
Always a problem, don't know why I'm like this

I lost you to habits
I took you for granted
I hurt you, I added
More pain to the damage

Watch it burn with me

Keep getting caught in another crisis
Always a problem, don't know why I'm like this
If you don't love me, can't say I blame you
I've known me better and I think I hate me too

I think I'm an addict
To chaos and madness
To feeling the sadness
Burn it all down just to play in the ashes

Keep getting caught in another crisis
Always a problem, don't know why I'm like this
If you don't love me, can't say I blame you
I know me better, and I think I hate me
I think I hate me too
I hate me too
I hate me too
I hate me too

I hurt you, I added
More pain to your damage

Keep getting caught in another crisis
Always a problem, don't know why I'm like this
If you don't love me, can't say I blame you
I know me better, and I think I hate me
I think I hate me too
I hate me too
