

How About You

Staind

Dsus2 E F#m11

If someone else showed you the way

Dsus2

would you take the wheel and steer?

Dsus2 E F#m11

It hurts me that you're not ashamed

Dsus2

of what you're doing here

Dsus2 E F#m11

If they jumped off a bridge

Dsus2

Would you meet them on the ground?

E F#m11

Or would you try and claim

Dsus2

That it never made a sound

Asus2 E F#m11

Everyone plays the hand they're dealt

Dsus2

And learns to walk through life themselves

Asus2 E F#m11 Dsus2

Not everything in life is handed on a plate

Asus2 E F#m11

When people think your words are true

Dsus2

It doesn't matter what you do

Asus2 E F#m11

I sold my soul to get here

Dsus2

How 'bout you?

So you choose to force your hand

What a strange way to make friends

And you always change the rules

So the drama never ends

And you blindly go through life

Judging only by what it's worth

Just try not to forget

That the meek inherit earth

So please don't take offense

This is just a point of view

Cause I'm the only one who

Will say these things to you
