

I can't believe how far I've gone
Watch me stumble and come undone
If you take away, these memories
All that's left, is just me

[Chorus:]

'Cause I don't want this and I don't need this and I don't feel this
It seems that even though she's with me I can't shake this I can't fake this and I won't take this anymore

So you trace, to break my heart
Should have seen this from the start
I'm haunted by your apathy
All that's left is killing me

[Chorus]

You believe that the way you choose to be I've always had to see
The promise I don't fit so I don't lose my faith
Now the sun has gone away
It's getting colder everyday
So before I freeze to death there's something I should say

I don't want this
I don't need this
and I don't feel this
It seems that even though she's with me I can't shake this and I can't fake this
and I won't take this anymore

And though you say you understand you still won't face this Can't erase this
I won't embrace this anymore
