

Euphoria

Stalking Gia

Easy words, while rehearse, nothing new in these lines
Stoic face, you were raised, everything inside
I need a peace of your heaven
Can we get there togethe-er?

If this real, are you real?
Do we live in my mind?

I'm afraid that we'll fade away with the sky
It's only worse this love (love)
I can't see it, I can't feel it at all

I wanna wake up in a different light
Someplace in between the day & night

I wanna take you somewhere glorious
I wanna meet you in Euphoria

I don't wanna die and miss this sight
[?] I fit up way half to something high

I wanna lead you somewhere glorious
I wanna meet you in Euphoria

Something's there, in the air, had a change of heart
Breathe it in, and begin pulling us apart
And the wind keeps blowing (Oh, oh, oh)
Like it won't leave us alone

So it is, like a whisper on a breeze
To a scream in my dreams keeping us from sleep
Can we put back the pieces? (Oh, oh, oh)
Is it the middle or is it the end?

I wanna wake up in a different light
Someplace in between the day and night

I wanna take you somewhere glorious
I wanna meet you in Euphoria

I don't wanna die and miss this sight
[?] I fit up way half to something high

I wanna lead you somewhere glorious
I wanna meet you in Euphoria

Time's escaping me
I won't let you leave

When the light hits me
I won't let you leave

I wanna wake up in a different light
Someplace in between the day and night

I wanna take you somewhere glorious
I wanna meet you in Euphoria

I don't wanna die and miss this sight
[?] I fit up way half to something high

I wanna lead you somewhere glorious
I wanna meet you in Euphoria

(Oh no)

I wanna lead you somewhere glorious
I wanna meet you to Euphoria-a
