

MAGNETIZED

Stalking Gia

Light beams pulling me to the edge
I see but I don't see at all
Unknown I'm picking up for your call
Wrong ways aren't wrong these days
I go and nothing seems too far
Somehow I'm 20 feet from the bar

And nothin' adds up
And the lines are blurred
And my body moves
My body moves
Towards you

Can't call it luck, no not this time
(Tell me why I'm magnetized)
Straight to the gut when we collide
(Tell me why I'm magnetized)
And I feel it
And I feel it now
And it's pullin'
And it's pullin' now
Tell me why I'm magnetized

Some things are better unexplained
I tried to look beyond the signs
They all point to you every time, oh

And it haunts me out of my mind
It haunts me out of my mind
I'm out of my mind
Read thread
Our lives are tied

And nothin' adds up
And the lines are blurred
And my body moves
My body moves
Towards you

Can't call it luck, no not this time
(Tell me why I'm magnetized)
Straight to the gut when we collide
(Tell me why I'm magnetized)
And I feel it
And I feel it now
And it's pullin'
And it's pullin' now
Tell me why I'm magnetized

No nothin' adds up
And all the lines are blurred
Just somehow my body moves
It leads me right to you
It's nothin' logical
It's bigger than us two
Just somehow my body moves
It leads me back to you

Can't call it luck, no not this time
(Tell me why I'm magnetized)
Straight to the gut when we collide
(Tell me why I'm magnetized)
And I feel it
And I feel it now
And it's pullin'
And it's pullin' now
Tell me why I'm magnetized
