They want me to change but some things just can't be rewritten
God of gods, light of light, they all true and living
Authentic like this book I hold in palm
With mercy, embrace all things, (through this) Holy Quran
Ho-Holy Quran

They want me to change, want me in reins
Locked up in cage, head full of rage
It's insane, the percentage of my niggas that's gone
And all my niggas that's home, hold your head and stay strong
What's hatnin' in the White House got my black thoughts runnin'
Deeply rooted in this evil, I'm tryna crop out somethin'
And plant these good seeds of mine, hope they see the signs
Why my people dyin' on Vine, swear that Facebook live
Desensitized by murder, murder, bloody murder
Likes and retweets don't help in hands, just all observers
Hype converters, wave surfers, they don't serve no purpose
Government at the service, God save us, we out here livin' worthless

They want me to change but some things just can't be rewritten
God of gods, light of light, they all true and living
Authentic like this book I hold in palm
With mercy, embrace all things, (through this) Holy Quran

They tryna crucify me for my originality
They say a man's worth depends on salary
But what's money but selfish ways and no one's proud of me
The ugly truth, got fat pockets and high calories
A gluttonous approach, with a selfish mentality
The wicked ways of sin, I be fightin' all these Jinns
Fake friends, backstabbers, they be knifin' at my skin
I rose from the ghetto without a thorn in my stem
I'm written and unbothered, completely who I'm 'posed to be Comfortable in my own skin, even if no one notice me
But notably, I'm known as King, someone who control this dream
And broke free of every iron hand that had a hold on me

They want me to change but some things just can't be rewritten
God of gods, light of light, they all true and living
Authentic like this book I hold in palm
With mercy, embrace all things, (through this) Holy Quran
