

Onset

Stalley

Yeah yeah, yeah yeah
All praises due, all praises due
Correct

Too much time but never enough time
Too much on my mind for me to unwind
I've been on my grind I haven't seen sunshine yet
I've been broke swimming in debt
And I ain't never going back, put that on my set
Blue collar, new dollar, fully loaded
And this ain't Russian roulette nigga
Ain't nobody a threat to us (nobody)
We been on the edge living (living)
Tight ropes and scaling buildings
Dangerous, dangerous (dangerous)
Michael Jackson dangerous (dangerous)
We been in the cave chilling (chilling)
Niggas still can't hang with us
Now I'm outside screaming to my guys
(It's lit)
I done birthed you niggas now it's time I baptize
Feel like I'm jogging in place how many times I lapped guys
This shit just ain't fun no more
The way I'm running up the score
They ain't wanna let me in
Now I'm running through the door
Make way, make way
Clear the vaults, y'all gon' pay
Everybody hit the floor
Ain't nobody safe
I'm coming to collect mine
And everything left behind
I'm a villain, I'm a villain
Smooth villain, smooth villain
Make every man pay
Don't touch the women or children
