

Warrior

Stan Bush

Out of the smoke, up from the ashes
Straight into the fire
Living on hope, driven by passion
One burning desire
Make a stand, never fall
Taking it all
It's a war you can win
Let the battle begin

Warrior
Ready to fight
You've got the power
The skill to survive
Warrior
Aim for the kill
Nothing can stop you
You can't break the will
Of a warrior
Of a warrior

Standing alone, no fear inside you
A soul's burning ember
Live by a code, one that defines you
To never surrender
When you're backed to the wall
Risking it all
It's a war you can win
Let the battle begin

Warrior
Ready to fight
You've got the power
The skill to survive
Warrior
Aim for the kill
Nothing can stop you
You can't break the will
Of a warrior

Warrior
Ready to fight
You've got the power
The skill to survive
Warrior
Aim for the kill
Nothing can stop you
You can't break the will
Of a warrior
Of a warrior
Warrior
The will of the warrior
