

Bully

Stan Walker

I'm told I'm not a man
They call me names
Knocked down, knocked out
I'm not the same
I'm living this lie
Who am I today
Someone, no one
Think I gotta chase
Nobody talking to me
They talk through me
Who am I
Just are things still the same
(I feel you)

I see you
I feel you
I feel your heart
Know your pain
You're not alone don't turn away
I see you

Pale face lanky legged too skinny
Like a bullet through the heart
Burn deep inside
Nobody saw your beauty
Locked down jumped up
Why you wanna hide
Look at you now
You're like a sunrise
So free, so free
Like a butterfly
(I feel you)

I see you
I feel you
I feel your heart
Know your pain
You're not alone don't turn away
I see you

Let me talk while the words is in me
Mic is on so record this entry
Let it burn like a sordid memory
Burn like I got the fear of god within me
I never had a friend defend me
So I fought with the forces in me
Shit I thought it was wrong to weep
So I cried myself to sleep ain't that crazy
Look mum the invisible baby
All grown up from the lie that raised me
All burned up from the scars it gave me
All churned up from the pain and maybe
All churned up from the pain and maybe
Made me a man and just cherish my lady
Raise my seeds like brad and angie
An' walk with the god
Can you feel me

(I feel you)

I see you

I feel you

I feel your heart

Know your pain

You're not alone don't turn away

I see you
