

Runaway (feat. Ruby Frost)

Stan Walker

Whisper in the dark
Say my name and call my heart
All I wanted was to know you're near
Though we've been apart
How come you never feel very far
I almost hear you breathing like you're here

Your shadow haunts me and all I do
I runaway from you
I've tried hiding but it falls through
I runaway from you
Runaway, runaway, runaway now
But you are in my sights
Runaway, runaway, runaway now
Eh, eh, eh

Like it's meant to be
You come and you find me when I'm feeling weak
With the kind of love that never sleeps

Your shadow haunts me and all I do
I runaway from you
I've tried hiding but it falls through
I runaway from you
Runaway, runaway, runaway now
But you are in my sights
Runaway, runaway, runaway now
Eh, eh, eh

Ooh, ooh
It feels like falling
And I may runaway
Ooh, ooh
It feels like falling
Falling

Your shadow haunts me and all I do
I runaway from you
I've tried hiding but it falls through
I runaway from you
Runaway, runaway, runaway now
But you are in my sights
Runaway, runaway, runaway now
Eh, eh, eh
Runaway, runaway, runaway now
But you are in my sights
Runaway, runaway, runaway now
Eh, eh, eh
