

Thank You

Stan Walker

Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, oh

Momma, you the best in the world
You're more than diamonds and pearls
Helped me at my weak times
You kept my head held high
You've always been my superwoman
You've always been the only woman
To ever have my heart
You ain't ever broke my heart

You always seem to find a way
To let me know that you love me
No matter how far away you are
You're with me, yeah

I would say thank you
But thank you ain't good enough
After all we've been through
You've never run out of love
There's no other words to say but "I love you"
So I'ma say thank you
Just know it will never, no never be enough

You correct me when I'm wrong
You tell me that girl ain't right for me
Tell me to look my best when I look under-dressed
Remind me I'm strong, to forgive when I'm wrong
Oh you pray for me, pray for me
Oh I love it when you pray for me
Thank you mama, you've been patient with me
Oh you love me eternally

You always seem to find a way
To let me know that you love me
No matter how far away you are
You're with me, yeah

I would say thank you
But thank you ain't good enough
After all we've been through
You've never run out of love
There's no other words to say but "I love you"
So I'ma say thank you
Just know it will never, no never be enough

Thank you
But thank you ain't good enough
After all we've been through
You've never run out of love
There's no other words to say but "I love you"
So I'ma say thank you
Just know it will never, no never be enough

I'ma say thank you
