

Reason

Stanaj

I hate to think we can't be friends
'Cause I won't be fine once it ends
Why can't things be different
Had we crossed the line before it began

Now my daylights gone
This crying heart won't beat the same
Nooo... Mmmmm
You're every breath I've taken
Now you're gone, I'm devastated
Ohhhh... Mmmmm
So tell me was it your or me or something in between us
'Cause I need a reason, give me a reason
So tell me was it you or me or something in between us
'Cause I need a reason, give me a reason
Woahhhhhhh

Can I stay, I won't be long
Can you find something like holding on
I'll keep my demons far away
I still love you girl anyway

Now my daylights gone
This crying heart won't beat the same
Nooo... Mmmmm
You're every breath I've taken
Now you're gone, I'm devastated
Ohhhh... Mmmmm
So tell me was it your or me or something in between us
'Cause I need a reason, give me a reason
So tell me was it you or me or something in between us
'Cause I need a reason, give me a reason
Woahhhhhhh
