Stranger

Stanaj

I just can't let go baby
Lately I been thinking, was it you or me?
Found out nothing could save it
Girl I paid the price, had your toll on me

How could you fool me so long baby?
Won't say it, can't face it
You can't tell me I'm wrong, save it
Can't shake it, it's still here, don't you remember?

Used to call me daddy
You don't look my way now, you just walk right past me
Act like I'm a stranger girl, what happened, happened?
How could you love and leave me with a passion? I'm asking
Used to call me daddy
You don't look my way now, you just walk right past me
Act like I'm a stranger girl, what happened, happened?
How could you love and leave me with a passion? I'm asking

What you gotta say to me? You ain't never dealt with that Got selective memories, I heard it, you can't take it back, no
You knew we could never turn this off, baby
But if you want you could try, oh

Why you keep calling my bluff?
Maybe to you it's just lust
Maybe I was just a victim [?] off of your touch
Girl you ain't got amnesia, you remember

How you used to call me daddy
You don't look my way now, you just walk right past me
Act like I'm a stranger girl, what happened, happened?
How could you love and leave me with a passion? I'm asking
Used to call me daddy
You don't look my way now, you just walk right past me
Act like I'm a stranger girl, what happened, happened?
How could you love and leave me with a passion? I'm asking
