

Cigarette Kiss

Stand Atlantic

Staple my eyes to my chest
'Cause I want to pretend that we're better than this
Hiding intentions through subtle inflexions
Like you know I'm asking for it

I wanted more so I went and got it
You wanted more so you came and got it
And I got that winter chill with summer's guilt

Is it so innocent?
It's just a cigarette kiss
Oh, cigarette kiss
Is it so innocent?

Clutching the bows of an urge
Like a static emergency
We're just to numb to fight off
Sketching a story in the back of my body
I don't care, I'll never be sorry

I wanted more so I went and got it
You wanted more so you came and got it
And I got that winter chill with summer's guilt

Is it so innocent?
It's just a cigarette kiss
Oh, cigarette kiss
Is it so innocent?
It's just a cigarette kiss

And I got that winter chill with summer's guilt
Kill time with bitter pills till nothing's real

Is it so innocent?
It's just a cigarette kiss
Is it so innocent?

Staple my eyes to my chest
'Cause I want to pretend that we're better than this
It's just a cigarette kiss
Oh, cigarette kiss
Is it so innocent?
It's just a cigarette kiss
And I got that winter chill with summer's guilt
It's not as innocent as I make it feel
High price to pay for a cheaper thrill
Kill time with bitter pills till nothing's real

Is it so innocent?
Is it so innocent?
