

Coffee At Midnight

Stand Atlantic

I don't wanna say goodbye
Can we just say goodnight?
Tell me how to change your mind
Over coffee at midnight

Sink into my trust again, keep me un-composed
Teach me how to love again, thinking of yourself
'Cause patience is poison just watching you come and go
I guess there's no use in hanging around

Words you're spitting out
Something I can live without
At least you can be happy now

I don't wanna say goodbye
Can we just say goodnight?
Tell me how to change your mind
Over coffee at midnight
If you're gonna say goodbye
Would it be alright?
If only I could change your mind
Over coffee at midnight

If you feel that lonely now, tell me that you don't
I didn't put my feet to concrete just for you to call me home
Not sorry if you miss me now, it's not my fault that we hit the ground
If you're no damn good for my mental health
There's no use in hanging around

Words you're spitting out
Something I can live without
At least you can be happy now

I don't wanna say goodbye
Can we just say goodnight?
Tell me how to change your mind
Over coffee at midnight
If you're gonna say goodbye
Would it be alright?
If only I could change your mind
Over coffee at midnight

So I'll keep pretending like everything's fine
Like we're saying goodnight and not our goodbyes
Now it's too late, too late, I don't wanna walk away
But I'm not just gonna sit and wait

I don't wanna say goodbye
Can we just say goodnight?
Tell me how to change your mind
Over coffee at midnight

I don't wanna say goodbye
Can we just say goodnight?
Tell me how to change your mind
Over coffee at midnight
If you're gonna say goodbye

Would it be alright?
If only I could change your mind
Over coffee at midnight

If only I could change your mind
Over coffee at midnight
