

I thought we had a good thing going
I never thought you'd be so cunning
Woah, woah
Lightening in a dark room, honey
Fine until it hits your body
Woah, woah

I'm stuck in the living room
Pace through my thoughts of you
Woah, woah
There's fire in the way you choose
To let your heavy heart stay bruised
As I carry it home with me
And the weight of everything

Push on my cold lungs and break me swiftly
Just take what you want, but I won't make it easy

Take what you want from me
I'm sure I made it easy, not being what you needed
Say what you want, you always do (I'm sure I made it easy)
Nothing new

You couldn't leave your words uncovered
I never thought you'd leave so sudden
Woah, woah
Underneath the roof we're flooding
Currents wrap around our bodies
And it kept me deceptive
To a bed dipped in poison

Just take what you want, but I won't make it easy

Take what you want from me
I'm sure I made it easy, not being what you needed
Say what you want, you always do (I'm sure I made it easy)
Nothing new (not being what you needed)

I'm sick of waiting
Just contemplating
Our past mistakes
And misguided chase scenes
My mind is made up
Enough is enough
So take what you want
Yeah

(Take what) you want from me
I'm sure I made it easy, not being what you needed
Say what you want, you always do (I'm sure I made it easy)
Nothing new (not being what you needed)

Take what you want from me
I'm sure I made it easy, not being what you needed
Say what you want, you always do (I'm sure I made it easy)
Nothing new
