

Silk & Satin

Stand Atlantic

I used to be so sharp
And I used to be so callous
But now I'm silk and satin
Overthrown
Rest it all on my lungs
Forgetting where I came from
Sleeping with the door closed
In an empty home

I wish I had a reason for distaste
Keep pushing back and everyone away

I'm all I have
I'm all I have

Something in the water
I drank it down and over
Saving every drip, but
I'm underwhelmed
Fade into the worst words
Deciding what my worth is
Just say it like you mean it
Or don't at all

I'm running wrapped in in band-aids
When nothing hurts at all
I'd settle for the good days
To break this lonely fall
Sick of telling myself that I don't need your help
But it's pressing on my skull
Forgetting where I came from

I'm all I have
I used to be so sharp
And I used to be so callous
But now I'm silk and satin
I'm all I have
Rest it all on my lungs
Forgetting where I came from
But now I'm silk and satin

I used to be so sharp
And I used to be so callous
But now I'm silk and satin
Overthrown

I'm running wrapped in band-aids
When nothing hurts at all
I'd settle for the good days
To break this lonely fall
Sick of telling myself that I don't need your help
But it's pressing on my skull
Forgetting where I came from

I'm all have
I used to be so sharp
And I used to be so callous

But now I'm silk and satin
I'm all have
Rest it all on my lungs
Forgetting where I came from
But now I'm silk and satin

I'm all I have