

Soap

Stand Atlantic

Foreign in my own head
I wanna forget the place I'm in
(And you got, and you got, and you got)
You gotta pull me out, pink elephant
'Cause I feel it sinking in Yeah, so what if I cave in?
I think I like that sweet cinnamon
(And I feel, and I feel, and I feel)
Feeling a little sick of myself (Dragging myself to hell)
To stop me, feeling nothing at all, all, all, all

So pull me out, I'm up and down
Soap in my mouth
Come on, filter me out, feet are heavier now
And you got, and you got, and you got
You gotta pull me out
'Til I feel, 'til I feel, 'til I feel
Myself just fade away

I can see your silhouette as it hits my brain
And I'm watching windows fall and you evaporate
I'd pay for anything at the cost
(Lose a little piece of myself)
To stop me feeling nothing at all

So pull me out, I'm up and down
Soap in my mouth
Come on, filter me out, feet are heavier now
And you got, and you got, and you got
You gotta pull me out
'Til I feel, 'til I feel, 'til I feel
Myself just fade away

I scratch the surface
Tastes like lemonade
I'm falling in my own head
I keep cleaning cuts
With soap you've made
Forget the place I'm in
(I'm up and down)

So pull me out, I'm up and down
Soap in my mouth
Come on, filter me out, feet are heavier now
And you got, and you got, and you got
You gotta pull me out
'Til I feel, 'til I feel, 'til I feel
Myself just fade
So pull me out, I'm up and down
Soap in my mouth
Come on, filter me out, feet are heavier now
And you got, and you got, and you got
You gotta pull me out
'Til I feel, 'til I feel, 'til I feel
Myself just fade away
