

Tempest

Stand High Patrol

One!

Huh

It's a storm in a teacup
A tempest in a teapot, yeah
A storm in a teacup
A tempest in a teapot

Every time we experience a little problem we'll have to complain

But [?] luck with that, huh

Don't we see that?

If you are healthy, healthy, healthy, make your [?] now

If you are healthy, healthy, healthy, make your [?] now

It's a storm in a teacup
A tempest in a teapot, yeah
It's storm in a teacup
A tempest in a teapot

Problems arise to put us to the test, to teach us something
So instead of complaining, try to understand that
Some regret the past, the other afraid of the future, yeah
Every day is a gift, we tend to forget that

It's a storm in a teacup
A tempest in a teapot
It's storm in a teacup
A tempest in a teapot, yeah
