

The Factory

Stand High Patrol

J's working hard at the factory for the pay
Amy is at home with their child every single day
Today J just learned the closure of the factory
He doesn't know how to say that to his wifey

J've been working in the factory, since he's 20
Hammering assembly lines, while the sun doesn't shine
J goes to the pub to forget this, very bad day
Friday the 5th of June, every day is not a pay day

At the bar, J watch mr president, at the TV
The president says to a guy finding a job it's easy
Hello honey how was ur day today?
It was okay, it was okay

J is working hard at the factory for the pay
Amy is at home with their child every single day
Today J just learned the closure of the factory
He doesn't know how to say that to his wifey

J is on his own, he has difficulty to swallow
Bro you lost your job but it won't do any good to wallow
Thank you Bro but can you find me one? Well I don't really know
How will I say that to Amy, my pockets are hollow
J is on his own, he has difficulty to swallow
Bro you lost your job but it won't do any good to wallow
Thank you Bro but can you find me one? Well I don't really know
How will I say that to Amy, my pockets are hollow

J's working hard
At the factory
J's working hard
At the factory
