

Butterland

Stanfour

You gave me all of this
You pulled me into this
My heart caught on fire
My heart is on fire

You're like a fearless train
Rolling on fields of grain
My heart caught fire
My heart is on fire

Oh, I want you to see what's real
You only got your zeal
Rocking the silver screen
I see you falling for
I see you falling for

You're speeding out of room
You're swimming in a sea of sound
Give me a reason
Find me a reason

Should I care after all
You rise, and I take the fall
My heart caught on fire
My heart is on fire

Oh, I want you to see what's real
You only got your zeal
Rocking the silver screen
I see you're falling for
I see you're falling for

I see you're falling for

You're like a stone in the sea
Your eyes on the sun, how will it be
Won't you stay here, let it go
You feel like a star, don't you know
And it's time to, time to pay for all the lies

Tired and two degrees
I feel like it would be
Give me a reason
Give me a reason
You're racing out the stream
Nothing is it what it seems
My heart loses fire
My heart lost on fire

Oh, I want you to see what's real
You only got your zeal
Rocking the silver screen
I see you're falling for
I see you're falling for
