Highest Towers

Stanfour

All the rocks are crashing down
Trying to stand on moving ground
They're sweeping up our last brigade
That's our fate, our fate

We ignored a million signs
Now the planets are aligned
Nostradamus and the Mayans
Sealed our fate, our fate

We're climbing up the highest towers
Waiting til the fire comes
Screaming with our loudest voice
We're not lost, we're not lost!

We're climbing up the highest towers
Waiting til the final count
Screaming with our loudest voice
We're not lost, we're not lost!

Alien marbles crashing down
Trying to stand on moving ground
Prophecies are coming true
That's our fate, our fate

Surf the tao, surf away
Be aware it's judgment day
Will they remember who you are
Cause this is the end

We're climbing up the highest towers
Waiting til the fire comes
Screaming with our loudest voice
We're not lost, we're not lost!

We're climbing up the highest towers
Waiting til the final count
Screaming with our loudest voice
We're not lost, we're not lost!

We're not lost, we're not lost!
We're not lost, we're not lost!
