Rule The World

Stanfour

Cut, cut out the tears
Cause tonight we rule the world
Don't wait, wait for the green light
Let it go, oh, it won't hurt

Cause we, we fear the blame
It's why we fall back, back to the same
There's no excuse, cause you can't lose
When the drums start shaking, the world's awakening

Life is full of complications
Can't control all situations
But for now, but for now
We won't back down

Red lights now only stop us moving
All the doubts only keep us losing
Pushed around, pushed around
We won't back down

It's time to stop the waiting
Cause tonight, we're gonna rule the world

Just walk, walk in the sun
Cause this world is open wide
So stop, stop what you're doing
Cause the fire is burning bright

We wait, wait for a sound
Not every king needs to wear a crown
And if we hold our heads up high
When the drums start waking, the world starts shaking

Life is full of complications
Can't control all situations
But for now, but for now
We won't back down

Red lights now only stop us moving
All the doubts only keep us losing
Pushed around, pushed around
We won't back down

It's time to stop the waiting
Cause tonight, we're gonna rule the world
Tonight we're gonna rule the world

We wait, wait for a sound
And the king now has lost his crown
Cause we held our heads up high
And the drums start shaking, the world's awakening

Life is full of complications
Can't control all situations
But for now, but for now
We won't back down

Red lights now only stop us moving
All the doubts only keep us losing
Pushed around, pushed around
We won't back down

Life is full of complications
Can't control all situations
But for now, but for now
We won't back down

Red lights now only stop us moving
All the doubts only keep us losing
Pushed around, pushed around
We won't back down

It's time to stop the waiting
Cause tonight, we're gonna rule the world
Yes tonight we're gonna rule the world
Oh, tonight we're gonna rule the world
Oh, tonight we're gonna rule the world
