

Drowning Out Another Year

Star Fucking Hipsters

oh! execute the thought-controllers while empty sould eat holy-rollers and better crimes yield better pay just drop the laws and lead the way we're drinking to forget about the routines, nightmare, sickness, doubt another drink to pace the fear we're drowning out another fucking year the embryos are comatose we're knocking back another dose another medication-call my higher power's alcohol so stop the silence, you're the prey your education starts today dissect the steps, don't live the shit cuz you only have one life and this is it we're born to suffer from indifference just twelve-steps and your empathy degrades deny responsibility blinded by duplicity fuck the arbiters, they're in the way we are, we are
we can fucking be unreliable we can fucking feel undesirable we're labeled, locked-away, iconoclastic we try to live our lives as more than plastic but we're sarcastic and we say
we are, we are
we're fucking spastic, it's okay
we are, we are!
