

Honey, I Shrunk The Cops!

Star Fucking Hipsters

they throw hot lead at innocents who toil at work to pay their rents the victim families all grieve but who do cops and courts believe? the blighted poor community or the sheriff and his deputies cuz press and power won't recognize those subjugated by their lies and oh, what can you do?
attack the city hall?
take on the boys in blue?
oh, peace flees away
when your loved one succumbs to the system's decay i dreamed about dead cops today about wire taps and severance pay about the whining of their sirens scream interrogation, torture schemes they prey upon our deepest fears they lock kids up for eighteen years they're trained to kill and loot question later after they shoot
and oh, what can you do?
attack the city hall?
take on the boys in blue?
oh, no thanks, no peace!
when your loved one is a victim of the crooked police a wall of silent blue construction for this life deduction your taxes pay for these class soldiers and you're calling them today!
