

Starchild

Star One

Touch me now and feel my force
I will give you life
History will change its course
Man will survive
Something's strange, I'm so confused, I don't know why (secrets have not been told)
I've been designed to tell the truth, I cannot lie
(when will the truth unfold?)
I heard the news, a mystery, a strange device
(what does the future hold?)
I'm so afraid, I just can't see through all these lies (behold this alien messenger) is this a cosmic design?
(the bringer of a new day)
one by four by nine
Reach out to me and seal your fate
A new phase is near
Come to me and cross the gate
No pain, no fear

A strange signal, beamed out in space
From the face of the moon
Harbinger of a new race
We'll be evolving soon
I see the future, a new star will rise
I see the world through the all-seeing eyes
Of the Starchild
I have entered another dimension
My perception expands
Transcending beyond comprehension
Evolution of man?

Time has come, a brand new sun
Shining down on you
The reign of peace has now begun
Dreams have come true
I see the future, a new star will rise
I see the world through the all-seeing eyes
Of the Starchild
