

21st Century Orphan

Starbenders

Got left behind by my mommy and daddy
But I'm saving for a brand new Caddy
21st century orphan!
21st century
I'm on my own, be fine alone, ain't got no home
21st century orphan!
21st century

She don't want me 'cause she got a new drug
She don't miss me 'cause she never knew love

We're all just rescues, looking for refuge, coming unglued
21st century orphan!
21st century
Got left behind by our mommies and daddies
But we're saving for a brand new Caddy
21st century
21st century

She don't want me 'cause she got a new drug
She don't miss me 'cause she never knew love
Got left behind by my mommy and daddy
But I'm saving for a brand new Caddy
21st century
21st century

Life ain't what it seems, you got to fight for your dreams
Keep holding out for love, hold on to your innocence
That's right, join the band, someday you'll understand
Life ain't what it seems, you got to fight for your dreams
Keep holding out for love, hold on to your innocence
That's life

Life ain't what it seems, you got to fight for your dreams
Keep holding out for love, hold on to your innocence
Hold on
Life ain't what it seems, you got to fight for your dreams
Keep holding out for love, hold on to your innocence

Hallelujah, burn them at the stake
Burn them
Hallelujah, nothing left to say
