

I don't wanna be in love
I kinda wanna be touched
I know all the joy love brings but I've had enough
Of that stuff
Every little thing I do, another link in the chain
So why should I try to be good if the world's to blame

I don't wanna be in love
Just want your sex
Taste your tears
I don't wanna know your name
I want your thrust
I don't wanna be in love
Just want your sex
Taste your tears
I don't wanna know your name
I want your thrust

Life will continue to unfold in the way in which we design
(You choose)
The pendulum forever swings with the hands of time
A choice is granted to all of those who are inclined
(You choose)
So many lives I've lived, I've become sensitive

I don't wanna be in love
Just want your sex
Taste your tears
I don't wanna know your name
I want your thrust
I don't wanna be in love
Just want your sex
Taste your tears
I don't wanna know your name
I want your thrust
I don't wanna be in love

I don't wanna be in love
Just want your sex (Need your lips)
To taste your kiss
Taste your kiss
I don't wanna be in love
Just want your blood (On my hips)
To touch your bliss
Touch your bliss
I don't wanna be in love
Just want your sex (Need your lips)
To taste your kiss (Need your lips)
Taste your kiss
I don't wanna be in love
Just want your blood (On my hips)
To touch your bliss
I don't wanna be in love
