Starbomb

Wow, well that's it, the third Starbomb album is complete. No more final raps for me to end the album with!

Aww, come on, Arin, we still have a minute left before our platinum-coated spaceship is fully gassed up and we take off for amazing future destinations unknown! How 'bout one last classy rap for the road?

Ugh, okay, Danny. Alright, Brian! Hit it!
I can fart the alphabet!

We're out of time! Fire up the engines!

Wooooooo!
