

Jetblack
Crying in your arms again
And that's that
I ain't gonna hold it in

Crazy
That's how I like it
Try to change me
I won't fight it

You
Wish that you were caught red handed
But baby I knew
Just couldn't understand it

Crazy
That's how I like it
Try to change me
I won't fight it

I'm tired of pretending
That you were always on my side
No more going back
But I wish that I could say goodnight

Crazy
That's how I like it
Try to change me
I won't fight it

Crazy
That's how I like it
