Love's Gone Again

Starcrawler

There was a boy, a little boy
He was created, built to destroy
Though a life that is cursed
Brought up by a lovely young girl

Get into your veins
Re-fabric rugged remains
Blood pumping, metal on skin
Poltergeist coming in

Peter suffers every day
Can't wake up, it's all the same
I feel the sun burning my skin
Cover me up, and keep me in

Get into your veins
Re-fabric rugged remains
Blood pumping, metal on skin
Poltergeist, love's gone again
```
