

Innocence and Other Things Lost

Starfield

Things once certain, I no longer trust
My sure foundations, have crumbled to dust
I would scale the highest height
Or search the depths to find the path to innocence and wonder

I don't wanna lose my way
I don't wanna lose my faith

Revelation, great is your cost Truth has been gained, but innocence lost
I would scale the highest height
Or search the depths to find
the path to innocence and wonder

I don't wanna lose my way
(It's a bitter fate, it's a heavy load, it's a mighty weight, i t's a narrow road)
I don't wanna lose my faith
(It's a bitter fate, it's a heavy load, it's a mighty weight, i t's a narrow road)

Narrow the road, small is the gate, it's getting harder to find
, harder to find Mighty the load heavy the weight, still i'm walking the line, h olding the line
Gone is the sun into the night, it's getting harder to see, har der to see Many the rules wrong from the right, they're getting harder to keep, harder to keep

Oh, how I've realized, all that I've compromised, I'm living in disguise.
