

Coconut Trees

Starflyer 59

I can see you all in my dreams
I can pretend there's never an end to it
No mystery, 'cause no one can leave
I know, I know the truth
There's always an end

But if you try this
I can't tell you if you'll pass the test
It would be my guess
You would end up just like the rest

I didn't know you had troubles on your mind
They are also on mine

If I could be what I wanted to be
I'd tell you the truth, you wouldn't hear me
I'd be sailing the seas, coconut trees

I know, I know the truth
There's always an end

But if you try this
I can't tell you if you'll pass the test
It would be my guess
You would end up just like the rest

I didn't know you had troubles on your mind
They are also on mine
I didn't know you had troubles on your mind
They are also on mine
I didn't know you had troubles on your mind
They are also on mine
They are always on mine
They are always on mine
On mine
