

Junk

Starflyer 59

So my calls are the last on your mind
I thought we were the salt and the light

We hardly ever talk
There's so much junk between us now
I hardly even notice who we are

So you are now the talk of the town
I wonder why and how you forget

We hardly ever talk

There's so much junk between us now
I hardly even notice who we are

We hardly ever talk
There's so much junk between us now
I hardly even notice who we are

Now I'm driving away in my car
Now I'm driving away in my car

Oh no no no
Oh no no no
