

I Just Want Your Touch

Starley

Wish that I could tell a different story
It's just been one of those days
And though all these thoughts are weighing heavy
Oh your warmth eases the pain
Share a drink with me and stay a while
Oh I know it's getting late
But there's just something bout this vibe between us
All my worries slip away

Cause when you touch my hand
My heart starts to dance
If you feel the same
Then let's take a chance
3 in the morning I can't pretend
That I don't need your
I don't need your
Touch on my skin
My knees start to shake
Sun's coming up but I'm wide awake
You're so amazing I can't pretend
That I don't need your
I just want your touch touch touch
Your touch
I just want your touch
I just need your touch

Watch you trace your fingers over mine
There's no start and there's no end
You know you don't need to ask permission
I'm already giving in

Cause when you touch my hand
My heart starts to dance
If you feel the same
3 in the morning I can't pretend
That I don't need your
I don't need your
Touch on my skin
My knees start to shake
Sun's coming up but I'm wide awake
You're so amazing I can't pretend
That I don't need your
I just want your touch touch touch
Your touch touch touch
I just want your touch touch

Cause when you touch my hand
I don't need your
Touch on my skin

Sun's coming up but I'm wide awake

Cause when you touch my hand
That I don't need your
I don't need your
Touch on my skin
That I don't need your touch
