

Let Me In

Starley

A mile to your house, it's fucking freezing
I'm tired of letting you down
It's past 2AM and I've been drinking
Is it too late to turn this around

Oh
I'm not even looking for a good excuse
Oh
Whatever you were, yeah it's probably true

But hold on
I know I can do better
Hold on
Swear I'll get my shit together
Yeah every second chance you gave I wasted
Don't deserve you anymore
But if I showed up at your door
Say that you'd let me in
I know it's 50/50 over
If I showed up at your door
Say that you'd let me in
Don't deserve you anymore
But if I showed up at your door
Say that you'd

Look at me like I am not a stranger
Let me take the edge off of the hurt
Yeah I took advantage of a savior
Maybe I had to lose you to learn

Oh
I'm not even trying to get you on my side
Oh
I know I'm the worst at apologizing

But hold on
I know I can do better
Hold on
Swear I'll get my shit together
Yeah every second chance you gave I wasted
Don't deserve you anymore
But if I showed up at your door
Say that you'd let me in
I know it's 50/50 over

If I showed up at your door
Say that you'd let me in
Don't deserve you anymore
But if I showed up at your door
Say that you'd let me in

Say that you would let me in

But hold on
I know I can do better
Hold on

Swear I'll get my shit together
Don't deserve you anymore
But if I showed up at your door
Say that you'd let me in
I know it's 50/50 over
If I showed up at your door
Say that you'd let me in
Don't deserve you anymore
But if I showed up at your door
