

Intro

Starlito

I'm a keep on grinding', I'll remind you it won't be easy
Grind hard mother fucker, grind hard
Yeah, this is Starlito
I called it hot chicken, 'cause it's like a flavor
That you can't get nowhere else

I came to an understanding
I just understand you might not ever understand me
I'm a get this money, it might come in handy
Fuck this shit up in just one night, after months of planning
Gambling, now I gotta run it back up, I'm the fucking back up
Plan for my family, friends and otherwise
If they ever paid me back for all I did, I would've been retired
But I can never pay them back either, so we even Self, I just wanna thank you for believing
Told my people leave it to me and we gone eat
As long as I just keep breathing
Tryna feed my mind and starve my ego so I keep reading
I'm a keep on grinding', I'll remind you it won't be easy
I just got my heart up out the deep freezer

I did it before, I'd do it again
Wanna fuck with me now, I ain't see you back then
Nah, I'm dead ass serious, where the fuck you been?
I don't need no new friends, I got nothing to lend
I did it before, I'd do it again
Wanna fuck with me now, I ain't see you back then
Nah, I'm dead ass serious, where the fuck you been?
I don't need no new friends, I got nothing to lend

Just hit my line, you know I'm pulling up, you know I'm hood as fuck
Back to feed the streets, just like a food truck, my tool tucked
Before BET Jams, man it was news coverage
Dice, Glock, or dope in they veins, everybody shootin' thuggin'
Built another high-rise, now we gotta move, fuck it
Fastest growing city in America, but who's coming?
Play monopoly, brought some property, because I knew something
Murder rate triple, blame that fitting gentrification
It's cool you wanna fuck with me, but nigga you finna pay me more?
Watch cost like forty thousand, spent that on my education
Got it off dedication, got off that medication
Got my head back on straight, and I got that bread on my plate
Just like this breast I just ate, pull the tallons, I'm at my play
We just give new artists yesterday
I'm grindin', I say it every time just to remind you (Grind Hard)
So bright, my mind will blind you like a Diamond
It's just perfect timing

I did it before I'll do it again
Wanna fuck it with me now, I ain't see you back then
Nah, I'm dead ass serious, where the fuck you been?
I don't need no new friends, I got nothing to lend

I did it before I'll do it again
Wanna fuck it with me now, I ain't see you back then
Nah, I'm dead ass serious, where the fuck you been?
I don't need no new friends, I got nothing to lend

I'm a keep on grindin', I'll remind you, it won't be easy
Grind hard, mother fucker, grind hard
Yeah (Grind Hard)
