

Keep it going 'til the next disaster
Maybe we'll be happy ever after
If I ever get another game
I'll keep it going until the final frame

Think we're gonna turn another corner
Something happens to distort the future
Are we destined for a life of blame
Or are we ready to embrace the change

Fallout
'Cause all we wanna do is stand our own ground
Feeling the same
Fallout
'Cause all we wanna do is turn it around
Drink it away

I keep it going for another chapter
I find the little things that had you captured
A voice shining like 'I want true fame'
Pouring out feelings that we keep contained

Then the bullet comes, when he's out the room
And you say the things, you've been meaning to Like a promise but, never come through

Fallout
'Cause all we wanna do is stand our own ground
Feeling the same
Fallout
'Cause all we wanna do is turn it around
Drink it away

There's a river where the bitter sweet heart flows
Tragic comedy halfway goes
You're my desert rose
There's a case where the bitter sweet heart goes
Follow me to final goal
My desert rose

Fallout
'Cause all we wanna do is stand our own ground
Feeling the same
Fallout
'Cause all we wanna do is turn it around
Drink it away
Drink it away
Drink it away
Drink this shit away
We both wanna change
