

Clueless

State Champs

It's so pathetic when I see her passing
I think her friends are in the backseat laughing
I give a nervous wave
She looks the other way
It's no big deal it's just my whole world crashing

Down
And out
My head is spinning round
I'm staring at the ceiling
While I'm trying figure out

Why do I do this
Put myself through it
I'm feeling stupid
And she's kinda clueless

Spillin' my heart out
He's driving her car now
Yeah I'm feeling stupid
And she's kinda clueless

Somehow talking to her at the party
She spilled her drink on me and I said sorry
I'm thinking honestly
There's something wrong with me
I took a shot and watched it all come falling

Down
And out
My head is spinning now
I'm done fucking around because she's all I think about so

Why do I do this
Put myself through it
I'm feeling stupid
And she's kinda clueless

Spillin' my heart out
He's driving her car now
Yeah I'm feeling stupid
And she's kinda clueless

I'm just a face in a crowded room
Been waiting around, don't know how to Move onto something new
Cuz I'll still be writing songs for you

Why do I do this
Put myself through it
I'm feeling stupid
And she's kinda clueless

Spillin' my heart out
He's driving her car now
