

Half Empty

State Champs

Is there something wrong with me?
Is there a key to the door?
And is there puzzle piece
That I must've ignored?

Cause I've lied around the world enough
And I've tried to be who I was before
So I'm done digging it up when I find
Time after time

I'm the glass half empty of every drink
You're the other half of me

Yeah I tried to get away
You were the one after all
Like when you said to me
I'm here to tear down the walls

Yeah you've been patient
You keep saving me
You never batted an eye
Well, maybe the key is
You were the pieces
Time after time after time after time

I'm the glass half empty of every drink
You're the other half of me
It's harder to stand
With my head in the sand
You're pulling me up so I can see
That oh, you're the other half of me

(You're the other half of me)
(You're the other half of me)

Sitting in a dark room
Feeling like I'm see through
Every time I see that you called
Wishing you were here now
Maybe I can heal now
Lately I feel nothing at all
But when it's you and it's me
You're the lock, I'm the key
And though I know you'll never stay
Still I end up in your bedroom
When everything goes back to
The way you made me feel that day so

I'm the glass half empty of every drink
You're the other half of me

I'm the glass half empty of every drink
You're the other half of me
It's harder to stand
With my head in the sand
You're pulling me up so I can see
That oh, you're the other half of me

You're the other half of me
You're the other half of me
