

Horizon

Stateless

You keep on getting so high, when you gotta' come down now
You gotta' ask yourself why are you hiding?
Why are you hiding?

She don't wanna find a new horizon, let it out
She's seen all she wants to see
She don't wanna find a new horizon, let it out
She's seen all she wants to see

Let's just pretend it doesn't hurt, maybe it would subside
But now, the pain is getting worse
There's no hiding
No, there's no hiding

She don't wanna find a new horizon, let it out
She's seen all she wants to see
She don't wanna find a new horizon, let it out
She's seen all she wants to see

She don't wanna find a new horizon, let it out
She's seen all she wants to see
She don't wanna find a new horizon, let it out
She's seen all she wants to see
A new horizon
A new horizon
A new horizon
A new horizon
