

Drowning
Red lights catch breath
All mistakes wiped away reckless sentiments
Cemetery's stability
Rope burn left for company
Once buried, you can't leave him

Six feet is just the start for me

Just another hit to the chest
I'll just lay here

Played out our movie like a b-side
To only feast on cowards hearts that couldn't hide
Analyse every scratch, word once said
Soft-spoken when I'm played in defence

Get the photographs of the evidence
Evicted scenes of mine
Save yourself before the end tonight
Bodies beneath, the ground breaking
I retrace the steps
And I'll just lay here

Contort
Bend
Scratch
Getaway
Rip the tape
Staple face
Bodies mark our scattered grave
Humiliate me
Thrown in led footed, no looking back
My impact makes no sound

Three days
In here with no air
Marble veins run black and dry
To try to love than never have tried
Try to love than never have tried
Try to love than never have tried

Get the photographs of the evidence
Evicted scenes of mine
Save yourself before the end tonight
Bodies beneath, the ground breaking
I retrace the steps
And I'll just lay here

Once you're buried, you'll never leave me
