

You need filters to live
You need attention just to co-exist
Pick us all apart to hold hands a little bit
You need a lover to live
A lover to live

I'm wasting time again
Open our hearts to them
Like we used to do when we were so young
Took it away from you
That final piece to the puzzle so I can not yet feel numb Took it away from you, but now I have to pick up the pieces and do it all for you

You need filters to live
You need attention just to co-exist
Pick us all apart to hold hands a little bit
You need a lover to live
A lover to live
